Principal

Dear Families

Welcome back to the start of our fourth term; the final term. This is a special one for our senior students; the Year 6's who in their final term of primary school prepare for their end of year celebrations; the Year 5's who have been away with their teachers on camp, preparing for the start of their leadership that takes them into their final year in 2016.

I hope you were able to enjoy this 'spring break' and have that extra time to be with your child/ren.

The warm weather we experienced last weekend gave us a taste of summer. The children returned to school in their summer uniforms and as we move toward the summer season I encourage all parents to ensure that their children have a hat to wear and that the hat is clearly named/labelled. The teachers encourage their students to drink water regularly and we now have a bubbler which is specifically designed for water bottles.

We began the term with teachers having a Staff Development Day focusing on student learning and teaching of Science; scientific and technological processes, and specific K-6 content, ably facilitated by our own Geraldine Watson Yr 6. Thank you to the B/ASC team who assisted our families by providing care on the day.

During the holiday break both Marisa and I attended the Australian Council for Educational Leaders (ACEL) Conference. The theme this year, being the 100th year of ANZAC tradition, was titled "The Courage and Commitment to Lead" and the Governor General, Sir Peter Cosgrove, set the tone which was attended by over 1,000 delegates from Australia, New Zealand and beyond. The conference was an opportunity for leaders in education to gather and participate in a program of world-class thinking, current research and best practice that can drive learning at system/school and classroom levels.

The overarching key idea that came from this conference was of the rapid-change we are experiencing in our world and the imperative for schools to re-think; re-imagine; and re-define their purpose and function. Creativity, Innovation, Student Negotiated Learning were the clear messages heard from educational experts. As the nation acknowledges Mental Health Week, it was most pleasing hearing that the latest research has Australian students at the top of the world 'Wellbeing' list.

As leaders of our school this was an important time for us to acknowledge the positive direction and systems in place as well as harness the energy of the learning experience as we move further down the path of providing a quality education for our students, your children.

Many of our parents have completed the online survey from MMG which will support us as we go through the School Review process in 2016. Thank you to those parents who have supported the school in this way and I encourage others to take this opportunity to engage with the school as we move into the future.

FFD coming . . . . . Saturday 31 October.

Please keep Yr 12 students and their families in your prayers as they begin the HSC next week.

A thought from Pope Francis:

"Let us not lose the freedom to take forward the mission God has given us, the Mission of the Family."
(Manilla, 12 January 2015).

Congratulations to the Matthews family (KC) on the arrival of baby Sienna.

God bless,

Terri Paterson

Assistant Principal

Welcome back to Term 4. It's quite difficult to believe that we are starting our last term for the 2015 school year. I trust that everyone had a restful holiday!

Terri and I attended some of the presentations at the ACEL Conference during the holidays. It was wonderful to hear stimulating, creative and visionary presenters share their perspectives on Education for the 21st Century. I'm sure we will have further opportunities to share our learnings but a few interesting points that struck a chord with me were made by a speaker named Yong Zhao. He is very interested in Global, 21st Century Education. He spoke about:

1. The importance of developing (in our students) skills commonly known as twenty-first century skills. Skills such as creativity, communication, collaboration and higher order thinking. The also highlighted the importance of student social-emotional and physical health.
2. The need to improve educational equity for our students. This means improved resources and no acceptance of mediocrity.
3. The importance of transforming pedagogy from knowledge transmission to an inquiry based constructivist approach.
4. The significance of capitalising on technology to enhance and build on digital literacies in our students.
5. The value of broadening the curriculum and placing a strong focus on areas such as moral education, the arts and physical education.
6. The need to de-emphasise testing. We live in a highly data driven society and this has been reflected strongly over the past decade or so with the amount of standardised and centrally administered testing our students are subjected to. (There is so much more to a student than results in English and Maths for e.g. Naplan!!)

It was inspiring to be able hear speakers who were so motivating and uplifting in their message and vision. I came away from the conference affirmed that many of the "big picture" directions being shared amongst leading academics in Education have been and continue to be part of our professional learning and a big part of the strategies and ideas we aim to continue to implement at St Kieran's.

Have a lovely weekend!
Marisa
